Pray & Play

Many of us cannot come to our St Mary's Tuesday Adoration, we work or our families have schedules that do not allow an hour every Tuesday....

Pray and Play (an idea copied from a church in rural Alabama), is an opportunity for prayer and fun. We will host an evening of prayer and fun monthly, not always on the same day so as to reach more of our parishioners.

An evening of Pray and Play will go something like this:

5:15—begin with Benediction and Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament

5:30-7:00 Families or individuals will sign up for 10 minute slots to spend time praying to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament

5:30-7:00 Families and individuals will play games (indoor or outdoor depending on weather), going back and forth from the church to the Hall (gym) between prayer and play.

A light meal will be provided so people can casually eat throughout the evening.

The parish secretary from St Martin of Tours, Troy, Alabama told me that this was one of their most popular events, with families and individuals enjoying the time immensely.

"And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him." Colossians 3:17

Giving thanks to God and using our words and actions to give all glory to God is the foundation of living a stewardship lifestyle. We were made in God's image and likeness, gratitude and generosity is in our DNA. As beloved sons and daughters of God, we are all part of God's family. Using our gifts to help others is our gift back to God and helps grow the Body of Christ here on earth and establishes a pathway to Heaven for each of us.

Pastoral Reflections

The Holy Family

My dear parishioners,

God is Good!!! All the time!!! And all the time!!! God is Good!!!

Jesus ben Sirach looks to the law of the Lord for wisdom. He knows the word of God provides the people with all they need to lead meaningful lives. In this reading, Sirach gives his readers the fundamentals for keeping a family close and secure. He begins by stressing how important it is to keep God at the center of the family. God is the origin of all. It was God who granted Adam and Eve the great privilege of having children in their own likeness. Sirach urges children to respect their parents from bringing them into the world and nourishing them to adulthood. Sirach ranks respect for parents with offering sacrifice to God in the temple. By giving honor to parents, children will enjoy benefits only God could grant them: prayers answered, atonement for sin, long life, having sons and daughters of their own. Sirach could have held up Joseph as an ideal example. Joseph respected his father, Jacob, in his old age. Because Joseph listened to the wisdom of his father, Joseph enjoyed blessings he could never have gained from the court of pharaoh.

This portion of Mt's infancy narrative describes the various places the infant Jesus was taken by Joseph in order to protect him from Herod and then Archelaus. Mt presumes that the reader is very familiar with the story of the birth of Moses in Exodus. The irony and intrigue that surrounded the birth and early days of Moses is clearly reflected in the present Gospel passage. Joseph is once again the lead character in the story. What he is supposed to do and when he is supposed to do it are communicated to him in dreams. Again, a bit of a reflection on the Joseph story in Gen: 37 - 50. Because Herod was seeking to kill the infant Jesus, Joseph is instructed to take Mary and Jesus and go to Egypt. This would put them outside the jurisdiction of Herod, ensuring their safety.

After the death of Herod, Joseph is able to take his family and leave Egypt. Mt at this point inserts another fulfillment formula based on Hos 11:1, "Out of Egypt I called my son." This is to bring to mind the ancient tradition of the exodus wherein God brought the chosen people out of Egypt. Jesus, too, will be led out of Egypt, but this time as Son of God. Mt is stressing the continuity between ancient Israel and Jesus, the Son of God. Eventually, Herod dies, and it is then safe for Joseph to take his family into Israel. Again, this reflects the experience of Moses in Ex 4:19.

What seemed to be safe due to the death of Herod turns out to be another form of danger because Herod's son Archelaus was also a threat. This obstacle is given as the reason why the Holy Family ended up in Nazareth. Matthew sees this as once again fulfilling what the prophets said, "He shall be called a Nazorean." The only problem is that no such prophecy can be found in the Scriptures. Some think that this is a general reference based on such texts as Is 11:1 and Jgs 13:5, 7. Mt's real point is that all of these moves from Egypt to Nazareth have taken place through the careful guidance of God. Thus, from the very beginning, the Holy Family was faced with danger, intrigue, and divine guidance. They lived by faith that, as God had earlier guided the chosen people from bondage to freedom, God would do the same for this chosen family.
